

COMBINATION TICKET.
Gathering of National Reformers,
Liberals and Sons of Hawaii.

Notice of only a few hours brought together a gathering, for the greater part of native Hawaiians, numbering about two hundred, at the Queen street Armory last night. Hon. Jos. Nawahi, leader of the Liberals in the Legislature, presided. The meeting was in the interest of the candidates of the National Reform, Liberal and Sons of Hawaii union—C. B. Maile and Chas. L. Hopkins.

Hon. L. W. P. Kanehale was the first speaker. He was going some time before an interpreter in the person of Hon. Antonio Rosa was called forward on entering the hall. The speaker wished to call attention to the champion of the native rights in 1890—R. W. Wilcox—and his course this year. The other night that man had said Hawaiians were foolish in looking for a new Constitution, the thing he had two years ago declared he was ready to shed his blood for. Hawaiians should begin anew that night and carry forward the demand for a new Constitution, keeping it up till the last Hawaiian generation if happily they might then gain their end.

Mr. C. B. Maile, candidate, had felt some diffidence the other night in speaking, but the large gathering of supporters now gave him confidence. He asked them all to vote for their candidates, and hoped on Tuesday night they could greet Maile and Hopkins as the choice of the people. He was sure they would think he was a noble-looking man (laughter), and their votes would confirm the thought. There were rumors afloat that money would be used against them. He advised them to take everything that was offered, and vote for Maile and Hopkins (applause).

Hon. J. Kaluna introduced himself as the member elected for Makawao. A member elected by a party and betraying it deserved decapitation; he believed that was the fate of such false representatives in other countries. The most important question before the country was that of relief for those who were now unemployed. They should decide on the best candidates and vote for them. He had the best men in his eye and would vote for them next Tuesday.

Mr. Daniel Lyons was pleased to meet the people before him, with whom he had been identified for years. It was late and he would reserve extended remarks for next Monday evening. He urged them to vote for Maile and Hopkins and elect them. On their election the salvation of the country and the stability of the throne depended. The Reform party comprise the worst elements of the country—Bush and Wilcox, Thurston and Smith. He forgot to mention another who had sold them worse than had anybody else—C. W. Ashford. They should never allow those who had sold them to enter their ranks. Ever since the speaker had come to the country the men he had mentioned were working against the interests of native Hawaiians, by trying to change the institutions of the country by unconstitutional means, that is, by the bayonet—(applause). In conclusion he drew attention to a notice in the BULLETIN, to the effect that every voter in the first precinct of the fifth district would be challenged and required to show his tax receipt. The voters should stay at the polls and see that everyone had his rights.

Hon. Kamae was sorry he was going to Kohala and would not be here election day, but hoped to hear on his return that Maile and Hopkins had been elected. They wanted men who would support measures for the benefit of the poor as well as the rich.

Hon. W. White had been struck with the advice given by a previous speaker. If money was offered them they should open their side pockets as big as asses' ears and take all they could get. (Laughter). If they voted for any but Maile and Hopkins they would have reason to blow their noses and shed tears, when they found themselves on their backs and the other fellows on top. Vote for one party only and don't split for Cecil Brown or anybody else. If Maile and Hopkins were not elected there would be no hope for the Louisiana lottery! (Roars of laughter).

The chairman made the closing speech, every period of which was loudly applauded by the native auditors. His remarks were not interpreted. He called a meeting of the Liberal Association on Thursday evening next, for the election of officers, as Bush and Wilcox had deserted them.

Hon. R. W. Wilcox appeared at the entrance at the close of the chairman's speech and asked for a hearing, but the Hawaiians rose in a body and pressed through the door.

Something New in Ranges.
The PACIFIC HARDWARE CO., (Ld.), have just received an invoice of the M. & D. WROUGHT STEEL RANGES which are superior to anything of the kind yet invented. They have been adopted by the United States Navy and are in use on the Charleston, San Francisco and Boston and other new vessels. Also on several of the new vessels lately built for the trade between San Francisco and this port.

An examination of these Ranges will at once show their many advantages over all competitors.

THE UNDERSIGNED INTENDING to leave the Kingdom on October 3d, requests that all bills against him be presented for payment between now and September 30th. Mr. Chas. L. Hopkins, candidate, was received with loud marks of favor. He spoke some time in Hawaiian and then addressing the foreigners in English said he did not intend to make a long speech. What he said to the Hawaiians did not much concern the foreigners. He would speak at length to them in the Beretania-street Armory on Monday evening. Then he would give his views on the lottery, having had time to study the question. He would not only discuss its bad features, but would point out its good ones as well. In his address to the natives Mr. Hopkins said the missionaries had conducted affairs during and from the reign of Kamehameha III, down to the time of the late Premier Gibson. Again they secured control on the promulgation of the Constitution of 1857, holding it till it was taken from them in 1890. They were trying to regain power to-day. Were the people willing they should do so? (Cries of "No!") If not, vote for Maile and Hopkins (applause). The missionary voice was the voice of Jacob, but the hand was the hand of Esau (laughter). He believed the present Cabinet was a strong one. The opposition to it was a factor in its favor.
